The Place To Be!

In Japan there is a spa where you can swim in tea, coffee, and wine

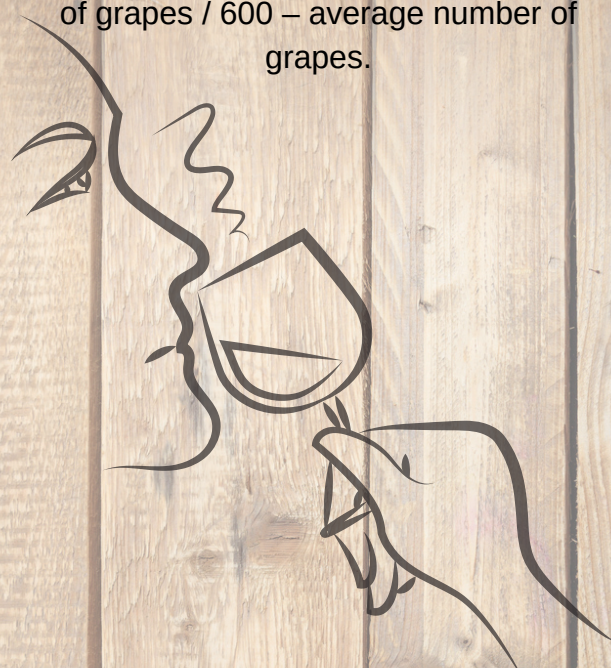

Red wine lightens in colour as they age

Since wine tasting is essentially wine smelling, women tend to be better wine tasters because women, particularly of reproductive ages, have a better sense of smell than men.

Intense fear or hatred of wine is called Oenophobia.

The oldest preserved bottle of wine is nearly 1700 years old and it is on display in a German museum

One bottle of wine contains about 1.27kg of grapes / 600 – average number of grapes.
